

Quiz 3 - Act V

30 points

Part I: Multiple Choice - Choose the best option for each question. (2 points each)

1. What are Theseus and Hippolyta discussing in the beginning of this Act?
  - a. Their love.
  - b. The wedding.
  - c. The four young lovers.
  - d. Puck being a goofy fairy.

2. Why does Theseus dismiss the stories of the young people?
  - a. He doesn't care.
  - b. He knows they're lying.
  - c. Hippolyta suggests it's very possible they all had the same dream.
  - d. Hippolyta tells him their stories don't matter.

3. Why does Philostrate try to stop Theseus from seeing the play?
  - a. He says it's extremely boring.
  - b. He says it's too powerful for his eyes.
  - c. He says it's too long.
  - d. He says it's too serious.

4. What is the point of having the Prologue tell the whole story before it is even performed?
  - a. The audience is too impatient and wants to know the plot now.
  - b. The audience will leave if they don't understand the plot before the performance.
  - c. The audience knows exactly what will happen, allowing them to see all levels of acting as it happens.
  - d. The audience has a short attention span, so they need to know the plot beforehand to keep them interested.

5. How long will the wedding festivities continue?
  - a. One fortnight (two weeks)
  - b. One week
  - c. One night
  - d. One month

Part II: Short Answer - Using complete sentences, answer each question to the best of your ability. (4 points each)

6. What does Theseus mean by the lines, "For never anything can be amiss, when simpleness and duty tender it"?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

7. What is the purpose of Puck's final speech? What should they do if they enjoyed the play; if they did not enjoy the play?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

8. In what way is Thisby's final speech humorous?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

9. What does Oberon tell the fairies to do?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

10. What is the purpose of Puck's final speech?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Bonus: What was your favorite scene in the play?